NANJANGUD MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

Dated 27th February 1917.

The following draft bye-laws are framed by the Nanjangud Municipal Council under Sections 46 and 48 of the Municipal Regulation of 1906 and are published for the information of the public.

Any resident within the area of the Nanjangud Municipality, who has any objection or suggestion with respect to the draft bye-laws should communicate to the Vice-President, Nanjangud Municipality within one month from the date of this notification.

President, Municipal Council.

Bye-laws re : the vacant building sites :—

(1) It shall be competent for the President or Vice-President to declare that any vacant land within the Municipal limits is fit for use as a building site and to call upon the owner or if the owner cannot be ascertained or found, the person in possession, of the site or when any doubt or uncertainty exists as to the ownership or possession, by persons interested in such site, to erect and complete a building upon it within a period fixed by the President or Vice-President not exceeding six months, provided, however, that in cases in which the President or Vice-President may deem fit and proper, they may issue a notice as aforesaid requiring the site to be enclosed and conserved within a period of three months or such further period as may be allowed by the President or Vice-President.

Procedure after default.

(2) When the notice issued under Sub-section (1) of Section 91 A of the Municipal Regulation requiring the erection of a building, is not complied with, or when the notice under Sub-section (1) of Section 91 A requiring the site to be enclosed and conserved is not complied with, it shall be competent to the President or Vice-President, after the expiry of the period of time fixed in the notice to enter upon and take possession of the site free from all encumbrances created by the owner or any person claiming through him and to dispose of the same for building purposes either by public auction or otherwise. The owner or any person claiming through him shall be entitled to the payment of the price realized by the Municipality by the sale or disposal of the site less any charges incurred by the Municipality in taking possession and disposing of the site. Resumption of vacant building sites and the disposal of the same by the Municipality.

(3) When the conditions subject to which a vacant building site is sold are not fulfilled, it shall be competent for the President or Vice-President to resume it with any building existing thereon after giving the owner of the site or if the owner cannot be ascertained or found, the person in possession such notice as the President or Vice-President may deem proper and to dispose of the same by public auction or otherwise for building purposes after giving notice of their intention to do so by a proclamation published in the Official Gazette, not less than one month prior to the date fixed for the sale on such resumption, the site with the building, if any thereon, shall vest in the President or Vice-President free from all encumbrances created by the owner or any person claiming through him subject, however, to the proviso that such owner or any person claiming through him shall be entitled to payment from the Municipality of the amount realized by the Municipality by the resumption and disposal of the property less any charges incurred in such resumption and disposal.

The powers conferred by these bye-laws shall be exercised by the President and Vice-President with the approval of Government and also of the Municipal Council in this behalf.

Re: the sale of vacant building sites by the Municipality by public auction or otherwise.

1. It shall be competent for the President or Vice-President with the sanction of Government to dispose of the vacant building sites vested in the Municipal Council by public auction or otherwise on receipt of applications.

2. The President or Vice-President shall reserve to himself the right of refusing any application without assigning any reason therefor.

3. No site shall be granted to any body who does not want the same for "bona fide" purposes of building a house.

4. All sales shall be subject to confirmation of the Municipal Council.

5. The applicant within six months from the date of the grant of the site shall collect the building materials on the site and, within one year, shall complete the building.

6. If the applicant fails to complete the building within the time fixed, the site will be liable to be resumed, the purchaser forfeiting all claim for compensation.

7. The building are to be substantial structures with a presentable frontage and necessary arrangements made for conservancy purposes in the rear.

8. No transfer of any site will become valid until and unless it has been sanctioned and recognized by the President or Vice-President.
